Annex 1

But since motor vehicles of this division appear in Doeberitz only sporadically, it is believed that the present division billeting area includes only the barracks installations in Kramnitz and Gross Glienecke and the Pionier Kaserne in Brandenburg. There is no other information available which furnishes any leads as to [redacted] 61st Gds Tank Regt.

d. [redacted] the 73d Gds Hv Tank SP Regt of the 11th Tank Div in April 1947, when the division was still subordinate to the Third Shock Army. The division was transferred to the U.S.S.R. in the summer of 1947 and has not been reidentified since.

e. The 74th Tank SP Regt is the only tank self-propelled regiment, which, being an organic component of a rifle division rather than a heavy tank self-propelled regiment [redacted]

It is possibly assigned to the tank unit which PJs confirmed in the barracks installation southeast of Proskurov in 1947.

i. [redacted] reported several times from Wittenberg in connection with motor vehicles of the 6th Gds Tank Div. The 78th Gds Hv Tank SP Regt is still believed to be stationed there.

25X1 k. According to a report of April 1947 [redacted] the 385th Gds SP Arty Regt in Kummersdorf. However, since self-propelled artillery regiments no longer exist in their previous organic structure, it is believed that the regiment was reorganized into the 79th Gds Hv Tank SP Regt, 25X1 [redacted] at the Berliner troop training grounds in October 1950, the regiment is now carried as being stationed in Rossau.

l. [redacted] reported from Spremberg. The unidentified Hv Tank SP Regt of the 9th Mecz Div which is believed to be stationed there has, [redacted]

25X1 m. [redacted] has been mentioned in several reports from the Buch laundry. Concomitant data on the location, [redacted]

n. The 82d Gds Hv Tank SP Regt [redacted] has been known for several years as a component of the 6th Gds Mecz Div. It is quartered in the Artillerie Kaserne in Berswalde.

25X1 o. [redacted] was on two letters, one of which was found in Prenzlau and the other at the Templin troop training grounds. Periodic reports from Prenzlau permit the conclusion that two tank regiments of the 25th Tank Div are stationed there, namely the 175th Tank Regt and, possibly, the 83d Gds Hv Tank SP Regt.
